

The Bungalow
Torrisdale
Skerray
by Thurso
KW14 7TH

The house, which is a timber-framed building and is pine-lined, is situated on a hillside overlooking Torrisdale Bay midway between Tongue and Bettyhill in North Sutherland.

There is a good-sized sitting room with open fire, a double bedroom and a twin-bedded room. There is also a sofa bed if required.

The kitchen has a cooker, fridge/freezer, washer/drier and other electrical appliances.

The bathroom has a wc, hand basin, bath and shower.

Electricity is charged at __15p__ per unit, payable to Mrs P Clarke following your visit. Please take electric meter readings on arrival and at departure. The meter is located in the kitchen above the door space.

Refuse is collected on Wednesday (approx. midday) at the roadside beside the wall.

There are small food shops and petrol available in both Tongue and Bettyhill. In Skerray there is Jimson's shop and also Post Office facilities.

Visitors need to provide all bed linen and towels for personal use. Duvets and pillows are provided for two double and two single beds.

Please replace items such as matches, fire-lighters, toilet rolls and washing-up liquid for the convenience of the next visitors.

Exercise extreme caution when using the open fire and ALWAYS USE THE FIREGUARD if leaving the house whilst the fire is still lit. A bucket of sand is kept outside the front door and fire extinguishers are kept in the kitchen and sitting room. In an emergency, the water stopcock is in the bathroom below the wash-hand basin.

Please note that the house does not have a TV licence.

Local information and telephone numbers can be found in the folder usually kept in the wooden cabinet in the sitting room. Please leave this for the use of other visitors.

On day of departure the house should be vacated by 1200. Please leave the house as clean and tidy as you would wish to find it.

Any enquiries or problems please telephone Mrs Pamela Clarke on 01604.647343 or Carolyn Smith on 01575575077.

£250 per week +electricity costs.
